Make copies of the statements on page two and distribute them to the children. Prepare to show the video to the children. Introduce the video by sharing the following information.

San Francisco is famous for many things. It is a leading city in new technology, home to monuments and views recognized worldwide and the birthplace of trends that have influence globally. It is not, however, famous for its churches. But there is a small group of Southern Baptist church planters who are trying to change that. In this video, learn about the unique city of San Francisco and see how you can be a part of what God is doing to influence one of the most influential cities in the world.

Tell the children to fill in the blanks on their papers as they watch the video. Encourage them to make a mental note of the difficulties church planters face in San Francisco and ways they can support them.
