You could help children like Den, age 4, and Dimi, age 2. These boys are among the two-thirds of Ukrainian children who were forcibly displaced from their homes in the first two months of the Russia-Ukraine war. Along with their parents, they fled their village with just a few belongings before it was attacked.

They made it to an aid station at the border and lived in a Romanian church with hundreds of other refugees. Send Relief supporters provided funds for this church to purchase bedding, food, puzzles and toys for the children. Church volunteers also prayed with the family and let them know Jesus loves them.
